

University Internship Program Guidance

The core purpose of Univision's University Internship Program is to enable students to obtain practical experience related to their field of study in the broadcast and media industry and related functions while completing their education.

Eligibility

Participation in Univision's University Internship Program is open to graduate and undergraduate students who are currently enrolled and matriculated in an accredited College or University program. Ideally, candidates will be sourced through the College or University; however eligible students may apply for consideration directly to the sponsoring department. The program and student's participation must be acknowledged by the school.

Duration

Student's participation in the program can be up to 20 hours per week for a period of up to 4 months.
